

Vine Talk

"We have been advertising for going on our third year with Grapevine and are highly satisfied! The effectiveness has been tremendous bringing new customers right into our doors (ad in-hand) and we see instant uptick in phone calls when our ads hit the mailboxes. A great part of this has been the efficient, prompt service and creativity delivered by the G-vine team. We have found the affordability of this quality media to be very attractive also, as there are few medias out there that allow us to target by zone at a reasonable price. We will continue to trust Grapevine as a cornerstone of our marketing plans and are happy to serve as a reference for the team and the product they provide me as a small business owner." - Martin Sinozich (Owner)

"The ads are top quality and very professional! The Grapevine is always there to help me with my advertising needs and questions and I love being able to choose which area I place my tailored ad into so it fits that market. I've tried all the other print medias in town and none have ever come close the results I get from The Grapevine Magazine" - Wendy Burns (Owner)

"Based on the response, this is an excellent way to gain new business at a very reasonable price. We are able to select the areas that fit our locations and we've gained tons of new customers that did not even realize we were here! The Grapevine has a great creative department and is easy to work with. ...Great Quality!" - Bob Faia (Owner)

"I've advertised in alot of local medias, and the team at Grapevine is second to none! They are not only helpful, but most importantly understand the needs of a small business. This is a top notch publication. The full color pages in a magazine format automatically outlive any other print advertising available. I chose the Grapevine as my #1 marketing vehicle because of the return on investment, and because they can put me directly into the households I want to target. My customers know to look in there for my latest specials, and what a way to improve customer loyalty! As a matter of fact, they get calls at their office from people looking for my coupons... You won't find that anywhere else!" - Tonya Bowles-Bowling (Owner)

"I want to say how much the Grapevine has meant to my business! Their charges are very affordable and reasonable, and the staff is extremely helpful in constructing an ad to help bring new clients. The Grapevine has been instrumental in bringing many new clients for me and I would recommend them to anyone who is interested in first class advertising." -Linda Myer (Nails by Linda)
